

AUTOS IN CRASH

CADILLAC AND NASH COME TOGETHER, TWO LADIES IN LATTER HURT

With a crash that was heard for several blocks two autos came together at Colorado yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. Frances LaGros and her daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson, of Hollywood, were driving east in a Nash car and Geo. W. Mills, of 2103 Highland avenue, Los Angeles, was proceeding north on Brand in his Cadillac, which struck the Nash squarely on the side, making a complete wreck of it and causing severe injuries to both occupants. They were cut about the face and considerably bruised, but no bones were broken. Mrs. LaGros' hurts were the most serious.

The Pulliam & Kiefer ambulance was summoned and the two ladies hurried to the Glendale Sanitarium, where their wounds were dressed. It was stated at the Sanitarium that they could be taken home before very long.

Mr. Mills made every effort to stop, skidding his car 30 feet, yet it struck the Nash so hard as to turn it half way around.

Many who witnessed the accident or who arrived at the spot shortly after it occurred thought that a third car was in the wreck but this was not so. This car was going west and would have smashed into the wreck if the driver had not jammed on the brakes so hard that she managed to come to a stop just as her car touched the tangled mass. But it struck the wreckage hard enough to bend a fender and break a spoke for this driver, Mrs. W. E. Richardson of 601 South Gramercy Place, Los Angeles, yet doing no damage to the other two cars.

This accident made four auto mishaps in Glendale in four days, none of which, however, resulted in really serious injuries.

"Dynamo" Class

The Young Men's Class of the Glendale Presbyterian Church, comprising young men between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five years, has been organized under the name of the "Dynamos" class, dynamos being the Greek word for power. The purpose of the class is to bring together young men for the study of the Bible, social fellowship and athletic activities, thus seeking to develop a full-rounded useful life. Social activities are already being planned and it is expected that a number of strong athletic teams will be developed. Several challenges have already been received from other organizations. The class is organized with the following officers: President, Earl P. Hammond; vice-president, Clair Staley; secretary and treasurer, Edward Smith; athletics, Kenneth Wilde; social, George Stanley; devotional, Isaac Link; social service, Walter Melver; teacher, Fred W. Hoffman. The young men will welcome to this organization any who desire to become members.

COURTNEY GOES EAST

WILL VISIT SEVERAL OF THE LARGE CITIES ON BUSINESS AND PLEASURE TRIP

H. P. Courtney, of the Southern California Gas Company, left last night for a trip in the east combining business with pleasure. He goes first to Omaha, later to his former home in Minneapolis, then to Chicago, Columbus, Ohio, El Paso, Texas, and New Orleans. Mr. Courtney expects to be absent from Glendale for a month.

Mrs. Usilton Worse

Mrs. J. W. Usilton, who was stricken last Friday and had shown some improvement Monday and Tuesday, lost consciousness this morning and her condition is again considered grave.

Returns From East

Mrs. J. W. Cotton of 1137 San Rafael avenue returned Sunday evening from an extended trip in the East. She left Glendale last May and since that time has visited friends and relatives in Boston, Montreal, Toronto and Chicago as well as other towns and points of interest. Mrs. Cotton's trip east was made via the Santa Fe and returned by the way of Denver. She reports a most delightful time.

SENATOR HARRIS

EXPLAINS NECESSITY OF SUPPORT OF PROHIBITION ACT AT ELECTION

Senator M. B. Harris of Fresno who is the author of what is known as the Harris Law, which was passed by the last General Assembly at Sacramento but has been suspended by referendum by opponents of bone-dry prohibition in the State of California, appeared before a fair audience of Glendale people last evening at the High School auditorium and explained the necessity of voting for the Prohibition Enforcement Act, No. 2 on the ballot, at the November election.

The meeting at which Senator Harris appeared last evening was held under the auspices of the Republican Club of the 61st Assembly District, W. E. Evans, president of the club, presiding. A number of the members of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., occupied seats on the platform with the speakers, one of them, Chaplain C. R. Norton, giving a splendid talk on the Harris Law. He spoke of the necessity of enforcing the laws and expressed his faith in the Republican party.

Assemblyman John Robert White, on account of his intimate acquaintance with the Senator, was given the honor of introducing Mr. Harris to the audience. Mr. White vouched for the integrity and sincerity of the speaker and said, "I was one of the Assemblymen who supported the Harris Law in the last Assembly and it is my opinion that it is a good law and should be enforced."

Senator Harris made a splendid address making clear many points in regard to Prohibition laws and their enforcement. He said if California is to be saved from the clutches of the liquor interests it must be by the votes of the people south of the Tehachepi as unfortunately there is no hope of a favorable vote in the northern part of the state. He said it is just as essential that we support the 18th amendment to the federal constitution as it is to see that the 13th amendment, prohibiting slavery, is enforced. At the time the 13th amendment was passed anyone attempting to violate any of its provisions was considered a secessionist, a dangerous citizen. Today those men in the State of California who are fighting the Volstead Act which provides for the enforcement of the 18th amendment, and the Harris Law which is a state law conforming to the Volstead Act are just as dangerous citizens as those who violated the law prohibiting slave traffic. "They are probably ignorant of the crime they are committing in opposing the enforcement of federal and state laws," he said. We are denouncing the tactics of the I. W. W. and of other people who are disloyal to the government when at the same time there are many supposedly good citizens proving themselves disloyal to their government by opposing the enforcement of laws.

"If California does not vote 'Yes' on the Prohibition Enforcement Act, No. 2 on the ballot, she is repudiating one of the laws of the federal government and encouraging the se-

BIBLE CONFERENCE

DR. A. C. DIXON PREACHES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The second of the Bible Expositions by Dr. A. C. Dixon at the Presbyterian church was given yesterday afternoon at three o'clock on the "Temptation of Christ, the Testing of the Incarnation." Solos were given by Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Retts. At the 7:30 service in the evening Dr. Dixon took as his Bible reading Acts the sixteenth chapter beginning with the 25th verse, and gave as his text "What must I do to be saved?" And they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." "Saved"—not reformed. Christianity is neither form nor reform, it is a life. Reformation, education and civilization all together is not salvation. You may have them all, without salvation, and you are lost, in fact, without salvation they are sure destruction. "What must I do to be saved?" It is a personal thing. It is the personal relation with God that gives salvation, so the great question is "What is Salvation?" Salvation, first, is a great historical fact. The Lord Jesus came down from heaven, born of a virgin, died on the cross for the salvation of souls, rose from the dead on the third day, ascended into heaven, and whether you believe

POLAND AND RUSSIA SIGN PEACE

ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO WIN BACK VILNA; ARMENIA DECLARES WAR ON TURKEY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Peace has been signed between Poland and Russia, effective October 18 at midnight. Renewed fighting was expected between Bolsheviks and General Wrangle in South Russia.

Other war clouds gathered in Lithuania, where the government was raising troops at Kovno to attempt to expel General Zeligowski, who has siezed Vilna, Lithuanian capitol.

A Constantinople dispatch said Armenia had declared war on Turkish nationalists.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 13.—Soviet troops are attacking barricaded workmen in the streets of Moscow, according to unofficial advices received here today. The Helfingfors correspondent of the Aftenblad said authorities were alarmed at the anti-Soviet demonstration in Moscow factories, and were concentrating troops there. The Stockholm dispatch follows others of a similar nature, indicating serious unrest under the Bolshevik regime, including the uprising of sailors in Petrograd, which was crushed by Soviet troops.

HOME BREW SANCTIONED

FAMILIES MAY MAKE UP TO 200 GALLONS OF DRY WINES ACCORDING TO WARDELL'S INTERPRETATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Manufacture of dry wines and cider in the home, for home use, without regard to alcoholic contents, was sanctioned today by Justice Wardell, collector of internal revenue for this district.

Wardell made public instructions from Washington, which he accepts as an official interpretation of certain publications of the prohibition act, and under which heads of families may, upon making proper declaration, manufacture up to 200 gallons of dry wine. This construction of the dry law is regarded by revenue officers as being intended to permit the foreign element to continue the old country practices without molestation.

GROWERS FACE LOSS

GEORGIA AGRICULTURAL COMMISSIONER SAYS SOUTH WILL LOSE $500,000,000 ON COTTON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The south was today facing a loss of $500,000,000 on its cotton crop, according to J. J. Brown, Georgia agricultural commissioner, who is here attending the National Farmers' Conference.

Wheat growers will have a similar loss because of the drop in wheat prices growers said.

Brown said it cost 38c per pound to produce cotton which is now selling for 21c per pound. The crop will be more than 11,000,000 bales, with a loss of $50 per bale, he said.

Wheat growers said they were facing a loss of 63c per bushel on the basis of present prices.

COOLIDGE TURNS DOWN COMMITTEE

DOES NOT ACCEDE TO REQUEST TO PROCLAIM OCTOBER 24 AS LEAGUE OF NATIONS DAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Governor Calvin Coolidge, Republican candidate for vice-president, today refused to proclaim October 24 "League of Nations Day," declaring he would not use the office of governor "for the dissemination of a political propaganda by an unofficial proclamation resented by many of the people."

The League of Nations day committee in New York, in a message to governors of all states, had asked that October 24 be proclaimed "League of Nations Day" and people be urged to read the League covenant on that day in their homes and in other places.

FATHER CHARGED WITH MURDER OF BABY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Wm. Kolenski, age 24, former soldier, was under arrest today charged with murder for the alleged killing of his four months old baby. Police were told the child had been killed by a fall. The autopsy surgeon reported he believed the father had dashed the child against a wall. Kolenski's wife, a Russian girl, was married in Serbia.

FARMERS ASK HELP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The National Farmers' Conference today adopted a report demanding governmental assistance to stave off "general inevitable bankruptcy." A conference with Secretary Houston is scheduled for late this afternoon. Demands call for a lowering of the rediscount rate of the Federal Reserve Banks, and extension of credit.

M. E. ANNIVERSARY

REV. NORTON, FOUNDER OF THE CHURCH, GIVES UPLIFTING ADDRESS

Sunday, October 10th, was the seventeenth anniversary of the organization of the First Methodist church in Glendale. It was a time of real jubilation, the Evening News is informed by one who was present. The spirit of joy and victory was evident throughout the day. Especially was this true of the morning service. It was the very great delight of the entire congregation to listen to the anniversary sermon preached by Rev. C. R. Norton. Rev. Norton was the founder of the organization and served several years as its pastor. Few men in this section of Methodism are more revered than is this good man. Rev. Norton's sermon was from the text, "What hath God wrought?" He gave somewhat in detail the early beginnings and the subsequent growth of this great church. After a most inspiring and uplifting address, the whole audience arose as one man, in expression of their profound love and great admiration of this splendid prophet of God who has put so much of valuable service in this particular field.

Dr. C. Stuart Steelman

Papers scattered here and there, tools thrown down just where they were last used, an odd-looking package on the table, all these mute signs of a hasty departure, oblivious of the sordid things of life, can be seen in the office of Dr. C. Stuart Steelman, but the alert, ever-brisk, business-like occupant is not, for he has departed. As to his whereabouts, the reason for his hasty departure, the absence of the slightest communication from him, no word can be wrung from the lips of his every-day associates in the Glendale Book Store. The only response vouchsafed to anguished appeals from wondering friends for some information, however meager, were these fateful words: "He will be back tomorrow with his bride and she is a very beautiful Glendale girl. Her name, why yes, of course; it is, let me see, it is Mrs. Steelman."

Enrollment City Schools

The total enrollment of the grammar schools of the city, including, of course, the Intermediate, at the end of the first month, was 2417. Last year's enrollment at the same time was 1952. The gain was therefore 465, or 24 per cent. The addition to the Intermediate building will not be completed, it is thought, until February.

STUART PORTRAIT

MRS. ISAAC H. PEARSON HAS COPY OF SAME, PAINTED BY HERSELF

On the east wall of the living room in the cozy home of Isaac H. Pearson and wife at 644 East Harvard hangs a large oil painting of two beautiful maidens, surrounded by a massive gilt frame. Sitting just beneath this striking portrait when the Evening News man happened in was a brisk little lady with a crown of silvery hair and just the faintest touch of the Southern accent, though she quickly volunteered the information that she was still a hot rebel though she could now look back to the "Lost Cause" as a beautiful dream from which her people had a rude awakening. But when she stated that she was the painter of the picture, which was copied from the original, painted by Gilbert Charles Stuart, whose portrait of George Washington is famous the world over, her interested auditor was certainly amazed. When the likenesses of the beautiful sisters, both then in their teens, were painted by Stuart, in the early part of the 19th century, some years after the close of the Revolutionary War, they were fancy free, but not long afterward they married, one Isaac Pearson, father of Isaac H. Pearson of Glendale, and the other N. H. Ridgely, whose descendants are wealthy residents of Springfield, Illinois. The maiden name of the girls was Huntington and Collis P. and Henry, so well known to Californians are of the same family. The Stuart painting was acquired by one of the men of this family after the beautiful copy now in the possession of Mrs. Pearson was made by her.

Mrs. Pearson is an ardent admirer of the Evening News and says she and her husband would not be without it.

FIRST MEETING

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB OPENS SEASON WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

The Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club opened its season most auspiciously Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple, more than three hundred members being present. The Board of Directors received the members at the door and greeted them most cordially, and a splendid spirit of fellowship was created. The hall was beautifully decorated with gold-enrod and fernery.

Mrs. W. E. Evans introduced Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson in a charming manner, and told of the unanimous choice of this lady as president of the Club, to succeed Mrs. E. H. Willisford, who resigned on account of moving from the city. Mrs. Sidney Thomas Exley, First District Chairman of Federated Clubs, was then introduced. Mrs. Exley told of the work of the Federation, and gave a delightful talk on "Americanization," telling how Women's Clubs can aid in this great work. Mrs. Exley then installed Mrs. Hutchinson as president. She, accepting the gavel presented her by Mrs. Exley, told of her desire to fulfill the expectations of the members and of the things she hoped to achieve with their co-operation.

Chairmen of Sections and Departments were then introduced and briefly outlined their plans for the season. The sections include Literary, Music, Shakespeare, Drama, Legislative and Parliamentary. It was reported that between three hundred and three hundred fifty dollars had been cleared by the Minstrel Show, given recently, and $187 from the cafeteria of Tractor Show week. The membership is now 480 and many applications are on file.

Mrs. Hutchinson then gave a splendid address on "Woman Triumphant," in which she stressed the point that the home is the hearthstone of the nation; that for 71 years the women of America were held down, and now seventeen million have received their franchise and are enjoying legal rights. Mrs. Hutchinson was heartily applauded at the close of her address.

A charming whistling solo was given by Miss Mary Louise Hand, who so fascinated the audience with her birdlike whistling that she was

Death of Sarah Lane

Word came this morning to O. C. Lane of 327 Vine street that his son Milton's eldest daughter, Sarah, met death in the surf at Venice, where the family had been living for a few years, yesterday afternoon. She and a young companion went down to the beach to go in bathing but had hardly entered the water when Sarah fell over unconscious. She was rescued by a young man who happened to be near but when laid on the sand gave one gasp and expired. Heart failure, it is thought, caused her death. She was 16 years of age. The family lived in Glendale for several years and Milton was a member of the Elks' Patrol.

SURPRISE SHOWER

MISS LEDA ST. CLAIR HONOREE AT CHARMING FUNCTION LAST NIGHT

Miss Leda St. Clair of 1250 South Maryland avenue, whose engagement to Newell Root of Los Angeles was recently announced, was given a surprise shower last evening at the home of Pierson Hanning and wife, 235 North Orange. Misses Ethel Preston and Nancy St. Clair were in charge of the preparations and right well did they carry out the plans made so carefully beforehand. The house was decorated throughout with white and gold, marigolds and white dahlias, gold and white tissue paper being used. When the guests had all arrived they gathered in the living room to await the coming of the honoree, who had been summoned to the house to attend an executive board meeting. When she entered the room and saw the group of ladies awaiting her the surprise was complete. Just then "The Long, Long Trail" was started on the phonograph and Miss St. Clair was marched about the room until it had ended, then the others took the chairs bearing their names, but there was none for her. Then the room was darkened and the double doors separating it from the den rolled back, discovering a fairland of beauty. The fireplace and mantle were bank-

Mrs. Samuel Ayres of South Central avenue leaves tomorrow for San Francisco to spend a fortnight at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Ayres.

Senator Harris, who spoke at the High School auditorium meeting last night, was the dinner guest of J. H. Braly and wife, 505 North Brand, and was taken by them to the place of meeting.

Frank N. Motsch, and wife and son Franklin of 2139 Kenneth Road left yesterday for a 10 days' visit in Buffalo, New York, the old home, with Mr. Motsch's mother. They had planned to start sooner but had to wait for the recovery of Franklin, who was shot and seriously wounded a few weeks ago by a neighbor boy.

John Esterly's residence at 211 S. Kenilworth avenue is nearing completion, the light meter having been ordered installed yesterday. This section of Kenilworth avenue, two blocks long, was formerly called Cherry street. Mr. Woodmancy's new residence, at 462 West California, is also about ready for occupancy.

A. G. Lindley of the First Methodist church of Glendale has been recently chosen as secretary of the Laymen's Association of the Southern California Conference. This is a distinctive honor since this organization is composed of over fifty-two thousand Methodist laymen. There are few, if any, larger associations than this, in American Methodism.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bruck and son Herbert, Mrs. Herbert Crane and daughter Aileen and Mrs. Alice Weldon, all of South Glendale, arrived at home last night from a few weeks' visit in Moline, Ill., the old home. They were given a jolly midnight supper by Robert Danner and wife at their home, 1631 Gardena avenue, in which they were assisted by Herbert Crane. The returned travelers recounted the events of their trip.

Rev. R. W. Mottern was in San Diego last Sunday to fill the pulpit of the First Lutheran church there during the absence of the pastor. Rev. Mottern had expected to start for Washington, D. C., yesterday as one of the three regularly elected delegates from the California Synod to the United Lutheran Synod, which meets October 19th to 28th, but the urgent necessity to start the building his new residence at 211 North Adams street caused him to forego the trip.

Chas. C. Buckley, wife and younger son, Carl, moved yesterday to San Bernardino. Mr. Buckley, who is a P. E. motorman, having been transferred to a run over that way. William, the elder son, will remain in Glendale this winter. The Buckleys have been living at 461 West Harvard for several years. The house they vacated was moved into at once by Mrs. J. Hamersley, who had been living in Mrs. Kraft's property at 506 West Elk while the latter was visiting in the East the past summer.

Frank Gifford and his aunt, Mrs. Ellen Gifford, Grove Tyler, wife and little daughter, all of Battle Creek, Mich., started August 4th from the old home in an auto, bound for Southern California. They came to Chicago and then took the Lincoln Highway as far as Denver, camping out every night. From Denver they bore due south until the Santa Fe Trail was struck and they traveled the rest of the way on that. The Tylers are in Pasadena but Mr. Gifford and his aunt are searching diligently for a home in Glendale.

David Black of 1450 Kenneth Road has recently subdivided his citrus ranch at the corner of Central avenue and Kenneth Road into acre lots facing on the latter street and smaller lots fronting on the former. One of these smaller lots has recently been purchased by J. Horton, who, with his wife and two children, formerly lived in Glendale. They went from here to Mississippi, but came back to Southern California not long since. Mr. Horton is in business in Los Angeles but prefers living in Glendale. The family will be in Eagle Rock, where they were fortunate enough to find a place to rent, until the new home is completed.

ed with greenery and between these and the center table was an arched bower, composed of streamers covered over with marigolds, white dahlias and the gold and white tissue paper. Underneath this bower was a chair on which was the honoree's name in large letters. Suspended above it was a box of rice, with long ribbons attached. Back of the chair were two kewpies dressed as attendants of a bride and on the center table two other kewpies holding fishing poles from which depended many ribbon lines. These the honoree pulled in one by one, and each bore a gift. At intervals someone would pull the strings attached to the box of rice, showering it gently down on the figure below.

When this part of the program was ended games were played, the most striking of which was the making of a bride's hat by each one of the ladies, the best creation to win a prize for the maker. Miss Maurine Van Dusen was the winner of this prize, which was a Japanese pin tray, but she at once handed it over to the guest of the evening.

Refreshments were served in two courses, the first one consisting of sandwiches and salad, the second of cocoa and pumpkin pie.

Those present as guests were the honoree, Miss Leda St. Clair, and her mother, Mrs. Harry St. Clair, also Misses Ada, Roberta and Nancy St. Clair, Mildred Moody, Maurine Van Dusen and Ethel Preston, of Glendale; Misses Rena and Pauline St. Clair of Bakersfield; Misses Marie and Mildred Collam, Hazel Wells, Helen Blaney, Katherine Michaels, Marguerite Wirz, and Margaret Gibbs of Los Angeles.

John Strother and Joe Fash of 326 East Chestnut arrived at home yesterday from a two weeks' visit to Alva, Okla., where they formerly lived. Mr. Strother says that while the wheat crop was fairly good and the corn and oats unusually so things are not as prosperous there as here. There is very little building going on, hence considerable unemployment.

A permit was taken out this morning by Kent & Son for the erection of a warehouse, with concrete floor, as an adjunct to the Evening News building to be used for the storage of print paper.

cession of the state from the union," the Senator said.

As soon as the Harris Law becomes operative by the vote of the people at the November election all the law-enforcing machinery of the state will be automatically set in motion to enforce the prohibition laws. At present there are only 29 officers in the state whose duty it is to enforce prohibition laws and more than this number are needed in the city of San Francisco alone.

In closing his address Senator Harris urged that the State of California remain loyal to the union and its laws.

Chas. F. Van de Water of Long Beach, candidate for Congress from the 9th District, who is known as a firm supporter of the Harris Law, was introduced by Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church of Glendale. Mr. Crist said he had an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Van de Water, he had just come from Long Beach where he attended the annual conference and he presumed the reason why he had been asked to introduce the speaker was because they were brother Methodists. He said this being the case he was in a position to know something about Mr. Van de Water's standing in his city, and could vouch for him as a staunch supporter of prohibition. Incidentally, he referred to Mr. Van de Water as being the son of a Methodist minister.

Mr. Van de Water announced himself as a common business man who had never participated in politics but was glad to serve his state or nation as a patriotic duty. He wished the people to understand that he did not care to make any radical promises but preferred to look at both sides of all questions and then decide on the merits of the case. However, he said he was in favor of a sufficient tariff to protect the interests of the citrus growers of the coast and that he was emphatically in favor of the Volstead Act which is for the enforcement of the 18th amendment to the federal constitution, and of the Harris Law. He assured the people that his prohibition convictions are of long standing and as proof of this he said that about ten years ago he was appointed on a commission at Long Beach to see that the prohibition laws were enforced in that city and especially that light wines and beers should not be served at the hotels. His strict enforcement of these laws aroused the opposition to such an extent that one night his house was entered, furniture defaced and great damage done that he might take warning to cease his activity. He said this did not lessen his energies along these lines but as records will show made him still more active.

The speaker said he felt like apologizing for explaining his attitude on this question as he had supposed it was known he had stood firm on prohibition enforcement all of his life, and that such an explanation would not be necessary.

Mrs. Van de Water was called for. She responded charmingly and made a brief talk that left a very favorable impression on her hearers.

O. E. Von Oven led chorus singing with Mrs. C. L. Peckham at the piano.

"Ah, There's the Rub"

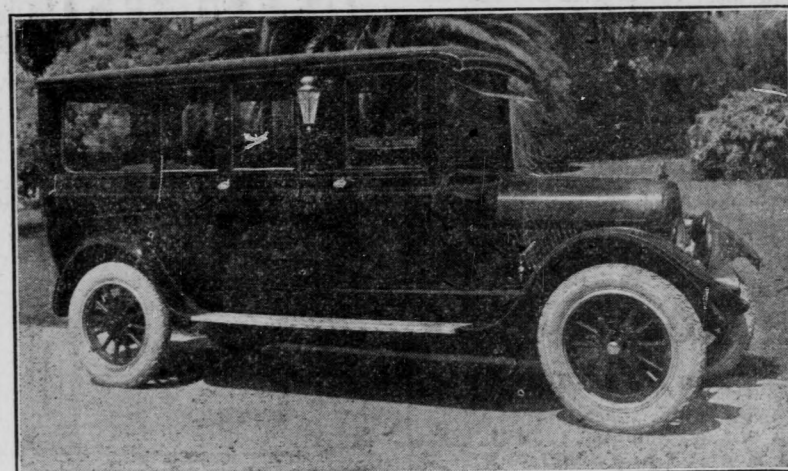

Did you ever figure how many rubs there are in your family wash? A thousand rubs or so extracted from your strength each Monday morning means a lot when a woman's health is in the balance.

The easier, simpler, more efficient and more humane way should interest you. It requires no rubbing (which means that your linens will wear longer)—just gentle sousing in rich fluffy suds of mild soap and rain-soft water which removes every trace of soil. And we iron, too.

That's the modern way and if you give it a trial once, we're sure you will adopt it permanently. All you need to do is to phone our driver to call.

it or not it is just as true as if you did believe it. Anyone who knows the facts concerning the Lord Jesus Christ and does not believe them is an irrationalist and does violence to his logical faculties.

The men who reject Jesus Christ and the Bible are the men who don't think it through. Salvation, a great historical fact, becomes a sudden experience. Jesus Christ is sufficient for all, but efficient only for those who partake. When we accept Christ we call it the new birth—negatively repentance—positively, faith. Repentance and faith go together in the matter of salvation. Repentance and Faith are like the Siamese twins, they are so bound together by a living ligament that if you cut them apart they both die. Salvation, a great historical fact, a sudden experience, now becomes a gradual process. "Desire the sincere milk of the word that you may grow thereby." When ever you can get a man to open his eyes and shut his mouth you are on the right track. It is when they open their mouth and shut their eyes that trouble comes. Salvation, a great historical fact, a sudden experience, a gradual process, now becomes a glorious prophecy. There are heights ahead and depths ahead and breadths ahead that we have never realized. You are permitted to accept a finished salvation and then there begins an incomplete salvation within you. I offer you the finished salvation of Jesus Christ on the cross. He ever liveth to make intercession for you. Have you accepted this finished salvation and are you willing the Lord should begin the unfinished salvation for you and just let God take care of the rest? During the service Gospel solos were given, "Rock of Ages" by C. Clifford Riggs and "Is Thy Heart Right with God?" by Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts.

Dated October 11, 1920.
FRED H. TAFT,
36111 Judge.
